

Prompt Sheet: Enquiries for Advocacy

Please note: this prompt sheet is intended to help you think about the reason you are considering requesting advocacy from Southern Disability Advocacy. You don't have to answer the questions before you contact us. However, if you spend some time thinking about these questions, you may be better able to tell us why you want advocacy, which will help us decide if we can assist you via advocacy.

We receive many requests for advocacy, and we do our best to assist everyone who is eligible. We make our decision on who we accept for advocacy based on the information you give us. Advocacy is about identifying and solving an issue of concern to you. It is short-term and it doesn't include case management or support coordination.

These questions can help you tell us what we need to know.

- Why do you think you need advocacy?

- What has happened to lead you to think advocacy would be helpful?

- What isn't going well in your life?

- What would you like advocacy from Southern Disability Advocacy to achieve for you?

- Who is in your life? Are they helpful or are they causing you concern?

- Do you get support from workers and agencies? Is this support helpful or causing you concern?
